

Managing Messages

What do you currently do to get your message out there?

What are the current messages that you think people hear/say about your school?

What are you currently well known for?

How can you harness or adapt that message?

What message do you want to be heard?

Who do you want to hear it?

Where could it be said?

Who could say it?

How could it be said?